WAITANGI DAY

6 February 2022

Questions to discuss

- 1. What did you think about the stories of God working in New Zealand before Pākehā arrived? Have you heard any of them before?
- 2. What stood out from the conversation today?
- 3. What's an action you can take from today?

Resources to explore

| Туре             | Link   | Blurb   |
|------------------|--|---|
| Video            | Aaron Hardy of Te Rautini and The Justice Conference                 | How Pākehā should respond and the posture needed. What indigenous cultures can teach us, and the importance of seeing the gospel transculturally. |
| Video            | Dr Alistair Reese at Curate church                                   | A Biblical call to remembering history. Role of the church as stewards of the covenant. How do we begin the journey?                              |
| Video            | God revealing himself to NgatiTorehina before Marsdenarrived | Story of how God was working here long before the bible arrived. Prophecies of what was to come showing God's sovereignty.                        |
| Article          | Interview with Dr Alistair Reese in Baptist magazine                 | Why do Pākehā need to know who they are, how the Treaty can help.   |
| Article          | Interview with Dr Hirini Kaa   | Story of Māori and the church.  |
| Podcast          | Huia Come Home Podcast with Sam Carpenter                            | Story of Treaty of Waitangi and Henry Williams.   |
| Podcast          | Jay Ruka's podcasts with guests                                      | A range of interviews and podcasts with various guests on topics relevant to Biculturalism and the church.  |
| List             | Karuwha's list of resources  | A range of papers and web resources to help the journey of remembering Aotearoa's history and what that means for our faith.                      |
| List             | Talks by Jay Ruka  | List of talks by Jay Ruka expanding on topics in Huia Come Home.  |
| FacebookPage | Karuwha Trust   | The page features a range of resources about church, history and identity   |